

Master Plan Study of a Greenfield Airport

To enable the Republic of South Sudan to export its agricultural products and to import needed goods for the development of the country a new international airport would be developed to serve the city of Yambio. TH Airport Consulting has provided a Master Plan Study for the local Ministry of Physical Infrastructure and supported the Government with the coordination of the needed site surveys.

Services:

- Traffic forecast
- Determination of capacity and facility requirements
- Concept development and evaluation
- Project Coordination

Period of Services:
2011

